“ I first met Mandy and Kathy about 14 years . I was working in a nail salon where they got manicures and we quickly became friends . I have such wonderful memories of going to dinner with Mandy or just out on the town . Wherever we were there was plenty of laughter. That's what I think of when I think of Mandy , all the laughter and that smile of hers .

Mandy and I shared a love of animals but especially our doggies . In lieu of flowers I have made a contribution to the Washington County Animal Shelter in Mandy"s memory .

“ Prayers for the entire family. Mandy was loving, caring, and forgiving. I'm just still in shock, but I know that you're at peace. We used to talk for hours at a time yet would feel like only a few minutes. May you rest gently. You will never be forgotten.

“ I can remember Mandy coming into work with her mother. I'm sad to say I only got to know her as a teen and never as a young lady. Kathy & Dennis you raised a beautiful young lady. Prayers be with you just remember she will always walk with you till it's time to meet again.

“ Mandy was a special lady she had a heart of gold and loved her baby boy Apollo. Her and my husband went threw school together and i got to know her threw the love we both have of Bostons. My oz had alot of health issues and Mandy reached out to us for support. Even a year later she would message me asking about Mr Oz. That truly means so much to us. She will truly be missed love you beautiful soul you were and now you are a beautiful angel
