“ Words cannot describe how heavy my heart is with Evan's passing. I have always known him to be sweet and comical. I admired his fearlessness of hardwork, and I am so proud of him. Although my time with him was cut short, I am honored to have known him as long as I did. Memories of him and his wonderful smile will never fade. I love you, Evan, and I miss you terribly! I will see you again someday...

“ I remember when I went into labor, and I still hadn't chosen a name for Evan. I was in total panic because I didn't want my sweet boy to come into this world without a name. As I stare at his name now, here in his obituary, and the date of death, I just can't reconcile it in my head. His beautiful name with such tragic loss. I love Evan so very much. He brought me such joy, watching him grow up, and into the kind of man I always knew he would be. I am so very proud of him, and I always will be. I will miss him always, and I await the day when I can run up to him, throw my arms around him, and tell him how much I love him once again. I'll see you soon, my sweet boy.

“ I watched Evan grow from a rambunctious little boy into the beautiful young man he became. He always had a smile to greet me and a hug and a 'love you' to say goodbye, I think that's what I'll miss the most. He was beautiful inside and out, was deeply loyal to family & friends, had a strong work ethic, and was a trusted friend to many. His life ended too soon but he lives on in the hearts of those who loved him.

“ My grandson Evan loved his family and loved attending all family gatherings. He worked hard to save for the life he wanted. He was always there for anyone who needed his help. If he made a mistake, he owned it and made it right. He was serious about his tattoos and enjoyed experimenting with his own tattoo artistry. He was loving & kind but also fierce & strong! Evan took my love with him & I will mourn his loss forever!
