“ Kay Kay Kay, I love you so very much. I just don't know how my life will be without you. From the day you was born we have always been close and as we have said over and over we was joined at the hips. I will miss talking to you daily and having you and Jim visiting us in Orlando FL and going to Walt Disney World and all the other parks. I know you are with Jesus now and your mom and all the family and friends. The angels in heaven must be shouting and singing now that they have another angel with them, you. You was my best friend, cousin and sister via being nephew and niece. I miss you so much now and can't wait till we see each other again in heaven. So happy that God put you and Jim together. That was the way it was to be. You had 2 beautiful daughters, grand kids and 1 grandchild. Your smile brightened up a room were ever you was. You are such a caring person. You are no longer in pain and have a new body. We will never forget you. You will be with us always. We will take care of Jim and all the family. God took you away too soon but we thank him for giving you to us to brighten our lives. I know you are shouting and singing with the angels. Love you Kay.

“ Kay (KK as I called her) was a special friend to me. We had many years working together at school, singing in choir, and attending church. She was a kind soul and a devoted mother and grandmother. She and Jim had an admirable relationship that was evidence of their love and faith. I will miss you KK! My deepest sympathy to Jim and Kay's entire family.
