“ Oh , My Pat O . I love that lady . She was my sister / friend / angel that GOD sent to me . I will never forget the day I met her . She came to work at Sycamore Shoals Hospital . Is where I met her . It was the best day ever , I knew then I had found me the best friend ever . No matter what people said or done , she always had something nice to say to them . Oh God Pat , I am not ready to lose you. You are and have been my strenght , the one i turn to , you have always help guide me . Oh Pat please . I don't want to let you go . I love you Pat . For ever and ever I will always love you .

“ Pat was our neighbor for 12 years. We moved in late December and along with John knock on our door with a Christmas present for my Mom and me. I can hardly go outside knowing I will not see her again. She was too lovely a lady to be taken from us. She was so kind and a very caring person. My heart is heavy due to losing her. I know John and her family hearts are breaking. I ask the Lord to put his arm around them and help them during this time. The Lord has received an Angel.

Neighbors,

“ Momma Pat we will miss you terrible but I know your be watching over all of us til God calls us all home. Thank you very much for reaching me how to live my husband and really truly appreciate him and all he does for me. I would sit back when I came home watch you and Poppa seeing the love in both your eyes everytime you two would look at each other or just seeing how you two would act driving down the road going to yard sale or just walking in the yard you guys was so much in love that I've told God that what I want in my marriage you guys would hold hands tell each other I love you even every time when one of you guys would go to the restroom or just leave the room you was saying those words to Poppa and he would say it back. Momma Larry and I keep a check on Poppa like we have told you since day one. Momma you will have to keep me straight inline down here on earth to make my marriage be so alive like yours and Poppa... I was one lucky girl cause God gave me a second chance to have awesome parents like you and Poppa... Keep Flying High Momma !!! Love you always Mis and Larry Wall your adopted son and daughter....
