“ Worked with Rhonda at Indian Path, she was an excellent nurse, loved to work with her. Earth's loss is Heaven's gain. Prayers for the family during this difficult time.

“ I knew this perky, sweet-smiling, blonde-headed girl named Rhonda from the beginning of elementary school. Life pulled us down separate paths, but she was never forgotten. Facebook helped with reconnection and our paths crossed again. This allowed for an extended group prayer to be spoken over her as she traveled an extremely difficult road. But what an example of courage and faith! My prayers are lifted for her family and Frank, her pillar of strength. Till we meet again... Twyla Dugger South

“ I never met Rhonda in person, but know that 2 nurses could have been friends. She must have loved Frank a lot to have fought so hard to stay on this side of Heaven with him. So sorry for your loss, Frank, and rest of the family. May the Peace of Jesus and The Holy Spirit bring you comfort. God bless all of you, Chuck and Charlene Elliott

“ My condolences to Rhonda's family. I remember a tiny blonde headed girl who we called "Dinky" in 6th grade. Then in high school she took a growing spurt and was tall and slender. I don't know about others, but to me she was kind, good natured and always treated everyone with respect. Heaven gained another Angel. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.
