“ When I met Tommy he was working on the radio, we became friends immediately. Tommy was a supporter of the military and veterans, lover of great country music, life of the party, and one heck of a good man. I'm honored to call him my friend and will miss him terribly.

“ Tom and Susie - Conner and I spent the evening at Holy Spirit Church praying for you and Tommy. We honored him and you as a father and son, finishing the evening with the lighting of a votive candle. While we did not know him, we completely know of your bond and love. We continue to pray for your hearts. God bless all of you.

“ Thank you Susie for welcoming me by your fireplace late night with your lovely son Tommy. Those conversations have always been in my thoughts, as both Tommy and I were saturated with grownup growing pains . You are a wonderful mother and friend.. I don't think he ever wrote my song he said, but He'll sing to me in my dreams!

“ I knew you for a long time. From our theater days in elementary school and all of the band trips through the years. Our little brothers were best friends growing up so we were always sort of around each other. You always found a way to make me laugh. Even though we lost touch this is such sad news. Rest in peace.

“ Rest In Paradise my good friend. Met you for the first time, you were walking out of a Winn Dixie and bummed a minty from me, and the next thing you know we were jammin together. We hung out for a few years then you finished with Full Sail and moved back to Boone. You taught me how to scream. You me my first moonshine. For some reason thought I was the cool one when it was really you that was cool. I will never, ever, ever forget you. Damm that boy could scream!

“ Tom was the star student in my music appreciation class in 8th grade. We made a deal that I would listen to Buddy Holly if he would listen to Mozart. I didn't tell him I grew up with BH and loved him. Tom and I agreed on almost everything. He was a remarkable young man. I will miss him and his irreverent sense of humor. RIP Tom. You were well loved.
